

Environmental impact assessment and water studies in Eastern Europe

Dimitrie Atanassov

CEO of Arcadia Engineering

Arcadia Engineering: Environmental impact assessment and water studies in Eastern Europe

Mr Atanassov has a Masters' Degree in International Economic Relations from the University for National and World Economy, Sofia, Bulgaria. In 1997 he obtained Diploma of Corporate Management (MBA) issued by 4 French higher schools. He studied in the following institutions of higher education in Paris: Science Po, Ecole des Ponts et Chaussees, Ecole des Mines and Colleges des Ingenieurs.

In 1997 Mr Atanassov started his professional career in Comagnie Generale de Chauffe in France. During the period 2001-beginning of 2007, Mr Atanassov was Executive Director of Dalkia Bulgaria S.A. and Representative of Veolia Water in Bulgaria (199-2009). He has been involved in the privatization of the Bulgarian energy market with the acquisition of KES (Energy saving company) and the district heating company of Varna. He has extensive knowledge of economics, analytical and development policy analysis.

Mr Atanassov provides for local partnership and local corporation for companies such as EDF - head office and Veolia Group. He has professional experience in identifying and managing projects in the field on the territory of Bulgaria and in establishing contacts with government and municipal authorities. He has prepared, implemented and managed with success different projects for utilizing of economic aid (FASEP, EroupeAid by ISPA and OP "Environment") and the WB.

Mr Atanassov is General Secretary and a member of the managing board of CCI France - Bulgaria (Chambre de Commerce et de l'industrie France-Bulgarie).

Foreign languages: French, Spanish and English